2014 HANS Z. HOXTER MEMORIAL FELLOWSHIP

Background and Purpose

The Hans Z. Hoxter Memorial Fellowship is awarded from The Hans Z. Hoxter Memorial Fund of the International Association for Counselling (IAC) to support the involvement of individuals from emerging or developing countries in the activities of IAC, in particular, attendance at IAC conferences. The fellowship is awarded annually to a student or counselling professional from an emerging or developing country who demonstrates a commitment to advancing counselling in his or her country.

The Hoxter Fund was established to honor the life and work of Hans Hoxter, the founder and first president of the International Association for Counselling (formerly the International Roundtable for the Advancement of Counselling). Professor Hoxter was known worldwide for his efforts to advance counselling as a positive force for human development and peace across countries and cultures.

Criteria and Requirements

To be eligible, the nominee must be:

- A resident of an emerging or developing country as defined by the International Monetary Fund’s Emerging and Developing Economies List. World Economic Outlook Database, April 2010 (http://www.imf.org/external/pubs/ft/weo/2010/01/weodata/groups.htm#oem)

- A beginning professional working (5 years or less) in a counselling or related field in his or her country

  OR

- A student attending university and studying counselling or a related field

- Able to attend and do a presentation at the 2014 IAC conference in Canada, in May. (The presentation may focus on the counselling challenges or needs in his/her country, research in which he/she is involved, or counselling or related projects in his/her country) Conference information may be found at: http://ccpa-accp.ca/iacconference/index.php

Individuals are to be nominated by a lecturer, tutor or supervisor, preferably an IAC member. Nominations will be evaluated on the basis of demonstrated financial need and commitment to advancing counselling in his or her country.
