

MEMBERSHIP for Education Institutes

Founded 1966

Education Institute Member
International Association for Counselling

The International Association for Counselling (IAC) is the world body for the counselling profession. Established in 1966, IAC is an International Non-Governmental Organization (INGO). IAC's humanitarian movement advances the development of counselling in order to improve people's lives and well-being. Our Vision is: "A World Where Counselling is Available to All".

IAC Education Institute Membership offers an exclusive opportunity to join as an educational institution and allows you to customize your membership to meet your needs to provide the greatest benefits to your institution. This membership is available to counselling education organizations including Universities, Colleges, Academies, Education Institutes and Training Schools.

Being part of an ever-increasing global membership strengthens counsellor education and the counselling profession for the benefit of society, and promotes the exchange of counsellor education, expertise and excellence worldwide. IAC Education Institute members can explore opportunities to collaborate with other members on issues of common interest and obtain access to information on international counselling developments.
